But the rational and the irrational appear such in a different way to different persons, just as the good and the bad, the profitable and the unprofitable. For this reason, particularly, we need discipline, in order to learn how to adapt the preconception of the rational and the irrational to the several things conformably to nature.

Discourse On Just And Unjust

(We recognize there is a related conversation about civil disobedience of unjust laws, one that we do not have space to fully unpack here. We note, in brief, that the question at stake regarding mask mandates is whether or not Christians can claim religious exemption from a law, not whether the law itself is unjust.
