Unended Quest: An Intellectual Autobiography is that Sir Karl should now sit down and write Volume II--The Quest Analysed : A Personal Autobiography. For we have some right to know where the existentially committed Popper, as opposed to 'scientific' Popper, springs from. To me anyway, and I think to most potential readers of this Auto-17 0 61 A/4 (fA)

Unended quest : an intellectual autobiography (Book, 1982 ...

"Unended Quest" provides a lucid summary of the broad themes of Popper's work along with some background he has provided of his life. I don't think one can overstate the contribution Popper has made to the theory of knowledge, even if many philosophers seem to ignore him after making, perhaps, offhand comments against his criticism of induction.
