Without Apology:

If you're unwilling to do that, you aren't living without apology. You're being small and lazy. But it will happen when you put in the work everyday and don't let others convince you to stop. You will someday realize the reason why others are still where they are is because they live with excuses and apology. And then... We succeed.

7 Ways To Forgive Without An Apology

For most people forgiveness has conditions. For example, some people will only forgive if they receive a genuine apology. For others, forgiveness is an act of self-preservation and to wait for an apology simply puts control in the wrong hands.
